San Francisco's Premier Gay Guest House—The Parker Guest House is a twenty-one-guest-room Edwardian mini-mansion complex, perfectly located in San Francisco's vibrant Castro District. The Guest House is just steps from the Castro's excellent restaurants, bars, and cafes and an easy streetcar ride to the Financial District, Moscone Convention Center, and the City's other major attractions.

Guest services include extended continental breakfast and afternoon wine social as well as use of the property's welcoming public rooms, gardens, sun decks, and steam spa. All rooms come equipped with down comforters, terry cloth robes, private phone, voicemail, second-line data ports (many with DSL), cable TV, new all-tile baths, and first-class amenities. On-site, secure parking is available for $15 per night.

The Parker Guest House is the most highly rated gay and lesbian guest house in San Francisco according to Out & About, the Damron guides, and Fodor's Gay Guide. Their complete business facilities make them an ideal hotel choice for both leisure and business travelers. Visit them at www.parkerguesthouse.com or call toll-free at 888/520-7275.
